News From the Officers

Are you ready for spring trialing? Some of our regions have been hit with some extremely cold and snowy weather this winter and we know you are ready to get out and enjoy warmer weather.

We have not been idle this winter. We have recently asked members to complete an online survey. The information gathered is used to provide our sponsors with the feedback they need to confirm their advertising monies are well spent. In addition we use the information to attract new sponsorships and adjust our programs to better fit our members' needs. We want to thank everyone that took the time to complete the survey.

We are still working on the updates to our computer system and online draw program. Due to unforeseen computer data complications, it has taken much longer than we originally anticipated. We're hoping that by the print date of this magazine, some of the new changes should have taken effect.

Trial chairmen will notice a change in the trial packet information. It is very important that these trial packets are reviewed, as some of the information has changed. One important item that has been added is to verify all members, judges, and field marshals before the trial date. One of the leading factors to trial reports being held in the office is; either a person's membership is expired, or their credentials are invalid. Field marshals are the biggest issue we have; a member must attend a judging seminar and pass the written test to be certified as a field marshal. Please ensure that you are using certified field marshals in your trial. We have also added new release of liability forms both on the trial entry form and as a form that can be signed at the trial. It is imperative that all individuals participating in your field trial sign this waiver. Participants under the age of 18 should be signed for by their parents or legal guardian.

Please make sure and check the "In the Know" page for recent rule changes and other important information.

Speaking of rule changes, the NSTRA rule book hasn't changed much since its inception in 1978. Mostly we have added notes, interpretations and application to make them clearer. The basic rules of NSTRA have remained pretty much the same. Lately, we have had reports of rule violations to "fit the circumstance" or "it works better for us if we do it this way" or "our region doesn't do that". These rules weren't made as guidelines. We have plenty of those, too! If you think a rule needs to be changed, submit your rule change in a timely fashion and it will be reviewed by the rules' committee. If they determine that it is a valid rule change, it will be sent to the board of directors for review. If they vote that it needs to go on to the membership for vote then we do that also. Yes, rule changes are difficult to get passed. We make it that way because we want to make sure that the rules are good for everybody. We have done well with the ones we have for 35 years.

Now, let's get out there and run our dogs!

Sincerely, CC

HOT WEATHER TIPS

Dear Boomer,

My bird dog, Eminem, seems lazy in his retrieving in the evening when I return from school to work with him. The first time or two he retrieves on the run, but then he slows way down. Any advice on how speed him up?

Signed,
Speed Bumps

Dear Speed,

You mentioned in part of your letter that you train Eminem in your backyard after school around 4:00 p.m.. Eminem is not being lazy, he is heating up fast and he has no way to get rid of the heat!

I recommend you have an Olympic size swimming pool installed with a dog ramp for easy access for Em and his buddies. You can then break up the monotony of training with a dip in the pool with Em!

While you are at it, put in a small freezer by the pool to store BOOMER'S Patented 'Meat Flavored Ice on a Rawhide Stick'. These frozen treats come six to a pack! Offering some amazing flavors like; ham, liver, chicken, turkey, lamb and road kill!

I hope this answers your questions and good luck!

Signed,
Boomer

THE KNOW!

News that we feel is important to everyone.

Rule Change:

The following rule change was voted on and passed by the membership. The results were 84 yes and 43 no votes. The following rule change will take effect with the publication of this issue of the magazine so mark your rule books accordingly. Changes are in bold.

Section 8 – Rules for Recognized Field Trials

8.21

A dog may be entered in a field trial that the owner is judging, however, the owner shall not judge his/her dog (i.e. the judges do not switch dogs during the brace).

1/14 While judging a field trial, a judge is not permitted to handle a dog in the field he is judging or in the opposing field(s).
3/10 Bird handlers will not be able to own dogs or handle any dogs in the same field in which they plant birds. 7/08

Two other changes that were voted on this year are as follows:

Section 11 – References, Special Requirements, Dog of the Year Trial and Regional Eliminations

11.09

An owner shall be allowed to enter his/her dog (or dogs) in his/her home region or regions in which his/her dog (or dogs) qualified for elimination trials, but not in both regions. To qualify for regional elimination trial, a dog must receive a placement in a sanctioned trial; the current regional champion is also automatically qualified. Dogs that qualify in home region must enter in home region. Dogs that hold Championship status must run in their home region. A dog may enter only one region elimination trial per year January 1 to December 31

3.01

A back is defined as when the dog “sees” the other dog pointing, he stops and remains stationary until released by the judge and/or handler or if the pointing dog breaks into a hunting mode. 7/13

Back must be called by handler before judge can score a creditable back.

* In the event a handler is unable to see a dog backing, the judge will begin judging the back and advise the handler that his dog is backing.

The judge may hold the backing dog at his discretion. If the judge believes that the second dog did see the pointing dog and did not stop until after he smelled the bird, then a zero back score is awarded.

7/13

Interpretation: Same as find: if the judge is aware the dog is backing, do not disallow the back if the handler fails to call back. 4/93

Hall of Fame Criteria

To qualify for the NSTRA Hall of Fame a dog must accumulate 13 points though any combination of the following:

National Trial win = 8 points
National Final Four (2nd, 3rd, 4th) = 5 points
Top Performance win = 6 points
Regional Championship = 2 points
Each 5 NSTRA championships = 1 point

This method would allow members to qualify using various combinations of accomplishments.

In case of a tie the following criteria will be used in descending order:

1. National Championship wins
2. Top Performance wins
3. National Championship placements
4. Regional Championship wins
5. Number of NSTRA championships

Hall of Fame nominations are due in the office by March 31.

Top Performance Award Criteria

Dogs must have at least 20 open points from June 1 through May 31 for the applicable year to be eligible. Weekend trials only. From there, the award will be based on national trials and regional eliminations.

The Performance Trial will be the beginning national trial each year, even if it ends prior to June 1st in order to keep the number of nationals the same each year.

The Regional Elimination trial will be based on regularly scheduled regionals for each year and only one regional can count per year. Regionals scheduled or rescheduled to be held after June 1 will apply to the previous year.

For National trials, a dog must make the Saturday cut to receive a qualifying score. Each national trial will have a point value of 800 points. The value will drop 25 points per placement throughout the Saturday cut (1st – 800, 2nd – 775, 3rd – 750, etc.). In addition, 100 bonus points will be awarded to the Champion, 75 for the second place dog, 50 for third and 24 for fourth.

Each Regional Elimination will have a point value of 600 points. The value will drop 25 points per placement until the last dog or points run out (1st – 600, 2nd – 575, 3rd – 550, etc.). In addition, 100 points will be awarded to the Champion, 75 for the second place dog, 50 for third and 25 for fourth.

The placement for Regional Eliminations and National Trials is determined by the score of the last round in which the dog ran.

“What to Say (or Not Say) to Someone Who Has Lost a Gun Dog” Gun Dog Series

As too many of us know, the death of a gun dog is devastating. Our gun dogs are more than just animals; they are integral parts of our lives, they are our confidants, our best friends, and our biggest wilderness fans. So when they pass, the feelings of grief we experience are very similar to the feelings we experience when we lose a person that was important to us—anger, denial, depression...they are all part of the healing process through which we eventually reach sorrow for the loss.

This became all too close to me this past week when an Idaho Western Rattler tagged (bit) my gun dog Jake. Although research data reflects that only 1 in 10 dogs bitten by rattlesnakes dies (10%) it's still the curse of chukar hunters and wilderness enthusiasts.

Gun dog loss is a delicate topic, and even if you've been through it yourself, it's difficult to know what to say when someone you know experiences the death of a gun dog. Pet advice expert Steven May understands this, and in a recent essay titled What to Say, And What Not to Say, Following the Passing of a Pet, he offers some great insight on what to do: “Throughout my long career working with both pets and pet parents, I've assisted in more than 3,000 euthanasias and have been present in countless situations where a pet has passed due to natural or unnatural causes. And no matter how many times I go through the process it is never easy. The loss of a pet hurts. They remind us of milestones in our lives and often represent the true meaning of “unconditional love”...So what do we say to a person who has lost a gun dog? And, just as importantly, what do we not say?”

Say This:

“Your gun dog was so lucky to have you.”

During times of grief many people look inward and ask themselves if there was anything else they could have done differently. Reminding someone of what a wonderful gun dog companion they were, and that their gun dog enjoyed the best outdoor life possible, can help to alleviate any guilt a gun dog owner may be feeling.

Don't Say This:

“When are you getting another gun dog?”

This implies that the former gun dog was like a piece of furniture—if it breaks or gets old you just throw it out and get a new one. Nothing could be further from the truth. Our gun dogs provide the kind of emotional connection that, for some, can resonate deeper than what we feel with human beings. Gun dogs demand that we be selfless and in return we are rewarded with unconditional dedication and field performance. That's not something that can be erased immediately.

Say This:

“Do you remember when...?”

Sharing a personal, heartwarming or funny story about a gun dog with a grieving upland bird hunter can help move the focus away from the loss to a remembrance of happier times. And it's those happy times that will help many grieving gun dog owners get through the tough times ahead.

Don't Say This:

As any gun dog owner will tell you, each dog is different and brings something unique to our lives. Would you tell a parent that has lost a child, “Don't worry about it. You have other kids?” Of course not. Be sensitive to the loss irrespective of how many pets a person might have.

Say This:

“Is there anything I can do?”

It might sound cliché but if it's truthful, and you're willing to help, just knowing there is someone there if needed can provide a great deal of comfort to a grieving pet parent. But if you say it you need to mean it. If someone reaches out to you with a request after you've offered, and you're not able or willing to help, you can damage a relationship forever.

Don't Say This:

“Are you really going to have them cremated?”

Just like it is with the passing of people, everyone has their own particular desires for how to handle the services. In the case of gun dogs, cremation allows us to “keep” our pet with us forever. By implying to someone that their choice of cremation is foolish speaks to a personality void of understanding the desire for some type of physical presence. In my case, I am going to be cremated and my ashes mixed with all of my gun dogs and then dispersed together into the high desert of Idaho's chukar country.

Say This:

“You did everything you could do.”

Many gun dog owners feel enormous guilt upon the passing of the pet. Perhaps they feel if they'd taken their gun dog to the vet earlier the outcome may have been different. Guilt is also often felt when it comes to end of life decisions, one of the hardest things a gun dog owners may have to go through. Letting the gun dog owners know they responded appropriately and with love can go a long way in helping to soothe a grieving void in their lives.

Don't Say This:

“It's just a dog.”

This will invariably come from the person who has never a gun dog. They can't begin to understand the connection we feel with our gun dogs and probably don't view this statement as crass or insensitive. But you have to wonder if they would say the same kind of thing if they were talking about a family member or friend passing.

Do This:

Sending a condolence card will be seen by most any grieving gun dog owner as a very thoughtful act. This is not the time for an email which is impersonal. Include a brief, handwritten note and include a photo of the gun dog in happier times if you have one. Another kind gesture is to make donation to a pet charity in the name of the gun dog owner (i.e. the Idaho Humane Society has this service with its Memorials & Honorariums Program: 208 387-2760). If the gun dog died from cancer a donation to the Animal Cancer Fund or another worthy organization can mean the world to a grieving gun dog owner.

The bond we have with our gun dogs runs deep. And one of the hardest parts about having a gun dog is that we know the odds are that we'll outlive them. But in the relatively brief time we have our beloved friends we know the joy they bring and we're willing to deal with that reality. Death is a part of life and eventually we move on. But that doesn't negate the finality that comes with death; particularly in the days after. Showing the same type of sensitivity to someone who has lost a gun dog as we would if it was a relative or friend who has passed not only helps to alleviate grieving it also reminds us of the fragility of life. And if that doesn't make you want to hug your gun dog a little tighter I'm not sure what will.

Hike high and far, shoot less, enjoy your gun dog and respect wilderness more! ■

IMPORTANT THINGS TO REMEMBER!

ENDURANCE CLASSIC:

Entry into this trial is based on all open points earned from June 1 through May 31, except points earned from placements in the final "Top 4" of a National Championship trial or Regional Championship trial (qualifying rounds do count) plus any NSTRA open champion dog. Champion dogs will be accepted first in the case of a tie-breaker in regards to entries. No invitations will be sent.

TOP PERFORMANCE:

Dogs must have at least 20 open points from June 1 through May 31 of the applicable year to be eligible. Points will be from weekend trials only. From there, the award will be based on national trials and regional eliminations. The Performance Trial will be the beginning national trial each year, even if it ends prior to June 1st in order to keep the number of nationals the same each year. The Regional Elimination trial will be based on regularly scheduled regionals for each year and only one regional can count per year. Regionals scheduled or rescheduled to be held after June 1 will apply to the previous year. For national trials, a dog must make the Saturday cut to receive a qualifying score. Each national trial will have a point value of 800 points. The value will drop 25 points per placement throughout the Saturday cut (1st – 800, 2nd – 775, 3rd – 750, etc.). In addition, 100 bonus points will be awarded to the Champion, 75 for second place, 50 for third and 25 for fourth. Each regional elimination will have a point value of 600 points. The value will drop 25 points per placement until the last dog or points run out (1st – 600, 2nd – 575, 3rd – 550, etc.). In addition, 100 points will be awarded to the Champion, 75 for the second place dog, 50 for the third and 25 for fourth. The placement for the regional eliminations and national trials is determined by the score of the last round in which the dog ran.

HALL OF FAME NOMINATIONS:

Hall of Fame nominations will be accepted November 1 through March 31 of each year. Send these to the office. Nominations of dogs to the NSTRA Hall of Fame are NOT "carried over" to following years should the dog not be elected in the year nominated. Plainly stated, a dog that does not get elected to the Hall of Fame in the year nominated must be re-submitted each year in order to be considered for election.

TRIAL SCHEDULES:

Fall trial schedules are due in the office by May 1. Spring trial schedules are due in the office by Nov. 1. All trials must be published on the website 4 weeks prior to their running.

SCHEDULING FEES:

Trial scheduling fees are due in the NSTRA office 4 weeks prior to your trial date.

TRIAL REPORTS:

Trial reports are due in the NSTRA office 10 days after the trial date.

QUAIL INVITATIONAL:

This trial is always held the last week in February that includes a Saturday. The qualification period for this trial is Nov. 1 through Oct. 31. This includes all points earned during the time frame, except points earned from placements in the final "Top 4" of a National Championship trial or Regional Championship trial (qualifying rounds do count). Entry into the trial is based on points (dog with most points first to get in and on down the list, etc.). NO INVITATIONS WILL BE SENT. Any dog with a placement during specified time frame will be eligible to enter. Amateur points do not qualify entry into Championship trials.

TRIAL OF CHAMPIONS:

The criteria for entry into this trial is that the dog has earned an open championship and is at least a 1X open champion by February 1 of the current year OR the dog can be a paid standby for this trial by achieving their open championship between February 2 and March 31 of the current year. All entries for this trial must be postmarked by March 10. No invitations will be sent.

New Purina Pro Plan SPORT Bars Help Fuel Active Dogs

The Purina Pro Plan SPORT performance nutrition line is introducing two nutritional supplement bars designed to optimize performance nutrition before and after exercise.

The Pro Plan SPORT PRiME Bar is a pre-exercise protein-rich supplement bar to be fed 30 minutes prior to activity so key protein building blocks are digested and absorbed into the blood to help keep muscles strong during exercise. "The purpose is to delay or minimize the natural muscle protein breakdown that occurs with exercise," explains Purina Nutrition Scientist Brian Zanghi, Ph.D.

The Pro Plan SPORT ReFUEL Bar is a post-exercise nutritional supplement bar that helps replenish muscle energy stores and promotes muscle rebuilding. It should be fed within 30 minutes after exercise, which is important because of the brief window of time after exercise when muscles are maximized for nutrient uptake. The ReFUEL Bar contains key nutrients to help reinvigorate tired muscles and is formulated with rapidly digested ingredients to help deliver these nutrients within the optimal time after exercise.

Prime Before Activity

The PRiME Bar contains protein from a combination of whey and hydrolyzed soy.

"These fast proteins are rapidly digested and easily absorbed," Zanghi says.

The Purina Pro Plan SPORT PRiME Bar is a nutritional supplement that helps keep muscles strong during exercise, while the Purina Pro Plan SPORT ReFUEL Bar helps to replenish muscle energy stores and reduce recovery time following activity.

These protein sources contribute to enriched levels of the amino acid leucine, which is the primary amino acid to activate protein synthesis and offset the protein and muscle fiber breakdown that occurs with exercise.

The PRiME Bar is designed for delivering concentrated calories and nutrients, with fat as the second most enriched nutrient and very low carbohydrate content. Concentrated nutrients allow for targeted portion sizes to minimize digestion activity with minimal release of insulin.

Because the PRiME Bar contains high levels of protein and fat, it is optimal for use during training and conditioning. It helps promote muscle strength and aid in muscle conditioning.

Made with real beef, the PRiME Bar is highly palatable. Dogs weighing up to 50 pounds should be fed one bar 30 minutes before exercise compared with two-thirds bar for dogs weighing up to 34 pounds and one-third bar for dogs weighing up to 16 pounds.

Refueling After Exercise

A dog's nutritional needs for short-term recovery immediately after strenuous activity are different than the nutrition that comes from a performance dog food that is designed to help with prolonged recovery.

The ReFUEL Bar's select carbohydrates restore a critical glucose energy source found in muscles called glycogen, and amino acids from select proteins activate the rebuilding of proteins. The bar contains a targeted blend and proportion of carbohydrates anchored by maltodextrin, which is the "optimal" carbohydrate source, explains Zanghi.

"Maltodextrin is rapidly digested and absorbed yet avoids the immediate insulin spikes that can occur when ingesting only simple sugars," he says.

Although glycogen is an important fuel for intense work, the muscle has a very limited capacity to store it. Long periods of exercise or repeated short, intense bouts may deplete glycogen stores and ultimately impair performance. Dogs that perform in a three- to five-day competition may experience significantly diminished energy or drive on the fourth or fifth day due to glycogen depletion.

Although well-conditioned dogs increasingly rely on fat metabolism on successive days of exercise, muscle and liver glycogen stores still contribute to overall performance and support the periodic intense bursts of speed needed to compete. A dog having depleted glycogen stores, or only partially replenished stores, will definitely realize an impact on the next day's performance, Zanghi says.

Feeding dogs their main meal after exercise will not deliver the same effect as feeding the ReFUEL Bar. This is because main meal foods are not typically formulated with rapidly digested carbohydrates like maltodextrin. Purina feeding studies have shown that feeding a performance dog food (30 percent protein/20 percent fat) immediately after exercise will not result in an immediate post-exercise rise in blood sugar levels within the optimal recovery timeframe to promote the glycogen replenishment.

Timing of post-exercise ingestion of the ReFUEL Bar is critical for optimal recovery because of the natural process of glycogen store recovery in animals. Canine nutritional studies have also shown that delaying ingestion of maltodextrin to two hours post-exercise results in a suboptimal replenishment of muscle glycogen.<sup>1</sup>

Dogs should be offered a ReFUEL Bar shortly after the end of exercise for the day. You should allow a dog's panting rate to slow and offer cool water for rehydration immediately after exercise, followed by a ReFUEL Bar. Dogs weighing up to 55 pounds should be fed one bar, up to 36 pounds two-thirds bar and up to 18 pounds one-third bar.

The Purina Pro Plan SPORT PRiME and ReFUEL nutritional supplement bars may be bought individually or in a multipack of 12 bars exclusively at pet specialty and farm supply stores. # Welcome to this year's 2013 Dog of The Year Trial!

This year the DOY is a full trial with 192 dog in 3 fields. Each fall, field trailers from throughout the United States and Canada, travel to Amo, Indiana for the annual Dog of The Year Trial. To qualify for this trial a dog must finish well in the regional eliminations held in the spring, or qualify as the high-point dog from their respective region. The trial format is set for 192 dogs, running 3 fields Wednesday and Thursday with the top 16 dogs from each field advancing to Friday's running. Three fields are also used on Friday with 32 dogs each. From Friday's running, the top 8 dogs from each field advance to Saturday.

If you happened to be at the Amo Conservation Bird Dog Club trial grounds on Tuesday afternoon, you were in for a treat. Wayne Fishburn cooked BBQ pork, with the help of Joe "Butch" Jackson's grill. The meal was spectacular and well worth the wait.

Our judging officials for this year are:

Chad Blackwell – Winchester, KY; Shelley Dunn – Louisville, KY; Frank Llano – Petersburg, IL; Bob McCandless – Berry, KY; Cory Perdue – Pendergrass, GA; and, Stan Perdue – Pendergrass, GA

Our bird handlers are:

Bo Marcum – Osawatomie, KS and Ron Becker – Carlyle, IL

Our field marshals are:

J.R. Coke – Coatesville, IN; Ron Huels – Carlyle, IL; and Crystal Nichols – LaGrange, IN

Mike Witt from Purina is also on site to help with all our Purina needs.

Breakfast was served each morning by members of the Conservation Birdclub, and we are thankful that there is a hot meal for us. John Davis is the National trial chairman with John Holder as the co-chairman.

John Davis called a meeting for Wednesday morning, and all the officials gathered to hear some of the rules and boundaries for this year's DOY.

A field judges for Wednesday were Shelley Dunn & Frank Llano with Ron Huels field marshalling. The running follows with * denoting those advancing to Friday's running.

As in every trial, it is very important that we get the fields cleaned at the end of the day and at the beginning of the next day. As we start this DOY trial, we are happy to get as many field cleaners as we can. This becomes very difficult as we go forward as people leave and dogs get tired. Tonight we have the Board of Directors meeting, so as handlers wait for the meeting to start, they get to clean the fields!

The computer draw was held for Friday's braces and posted while Jug's Catering prepared for the banquet. Everyone looks forward to the meal of fried chicken, fish, fried biscuits and their famous apple butter. Our office manager Julia Herwehe is in charge of the banquet and everything was great. We retired to the main room of the club house for the awards presentation and John Davis welcomed those who attended and thanked the Conservation Bird Dog Club for hosting this event for the 43rd year. If you have ever attended a national trial, you know a lot of work goes on to pull it off and the CBDC does this twice a year! He also thanked all the trial officials, judges, field marshals, bird planters and the chairmen. John handed out the trophies from Round 1. He introduced the present National officers: Scott Townsend, Chad Collison, and John Holder, along with the new officer's; incumbent Marilyn Cunningham remaining as Secretary and the new 2nd Vice President, Adam Fellers. Past NSTRA Presidents that were in attendance, were introduced and thanked for all of their service. President Chad Collison then introduced the office personnel. A big thank you went out to office manager, Julia Herwehe and, to Bev McAdams, who retired in October. He also introduced the newest member of the office staff, Emily Perkins.

Sponsors in attendance were introduced. A sincere thank you went out to Mike Witt of Nestle/Purina, Bob Bertram of Dog Portraits of Distinction, Todd Kellum of UKC and Dion Bliss of Red Haw Supply for their generous sponsorship of our organization. John introduced the 2012 Dog of the Year winner, Moonshine's Poison Ivy, owned and handled by Mike Rost, Mid West region and presented him with the NSTRA ring. Bob Bertram then presented Mike with the portrait of Ivy, one of the most coveted awards in NSTRA.

As this is NSTRA's year end trial, other significant awards were presented. Jackets were presented to the top 4 Top Performance owners (Adam Fellers/Quail Valley's Nose Knows 1st; Wayne Fishburn/Ragin Cajun Zeus 2nd; Brandon Ralston/Double R Streak 3rd; and, Tom Rotundo/Ruck's Brockway Mad Dash 4th) along with a winner's plaque to Adam. The NSTRA Distinguished Members for 2013 were Jeanne Rader and Frank Downs along with Tom Love and Ron Robertson who were the former 2002 and 2003 Tom Love Lifetime Achievement members.

Hall of Fame presentations were awarded to Lee Stephens and Don Markham, owners of Stephens Bright Copper; Penny Montgomery, owner of Tomoka's Smokin Blu; Clyde Wyatt and Tom McCandless, owners of Beeline Wink; and, Todd Craven, owner of Hap's Mighty Maggie Mae.

Before adjourning for the evening, a small, but very profitable auction was held of items donated for the NSTRA Scholarship Fund. A total of $1,710 was raised and we sincerely thank all of those who donate items every year and to those who enthusiastically bid at the sale.

Today, Friday starts one of the toughest eliminations. We will only be taking the top 8 from each field, to move on to round 3 on Saturday morning. Every point is going to count today. Judging today is as follows: A field-Stan and Cory with J.R.; B field-Bob and Chad with Crystal; and C field-Shelly and Frank with Ron.

THE WINNER: The winner of the 2013 Dog of the Year Championship was Moniteaus Ozark Rebel. "Boo" is a 4 year old English Pointer male owned by Sam Ashmore from the Florida region. Boo is from Ozark Rebel Rex and Moniteaus Calico Callie and a 1 time champion, he has 32

Sam will also receive the coveted DOY ring from NSTRA. John also presented Sam with a two-hole aluminum dog box from Owens Products.

This year, John Davis, the chairman, decided to award each entrant with a shirt with their dog's name embroidered on it. These shirts were a very nice change up to the list of goodies in the bag.

Each entrant was also the recipient of Purina Pro Plan dog food and biscuits, some EMT products, and an enameled hat pin that was donated by Penny Montgomery of the West Texas Region and Blu. It was especially heartwarming to see Miss Penny at the trial as we have not been graced with her presence for some time. She is truly one of the grand ladies of NSTRA and always a wonderful supporter of our sport!

This National Championship trial would not be possible without the help and support of our beloved sponsors and we greatly appreciate all they do for us. ■

Clayton and Watson – with his second place he earned his 1X CH

When Clayton and Sam found out they had drawn each other for the Friday run, Clayton put his hand on his Dad's shoulder and said "Dad, I'm really sorry for you."

When they took off from the starting point, they looked like two mirror images going across the field with the Ashmore shuffle. At one point we couldn't see either one of them and then they came up the hill from the pond on "A" field and could see them chatting. Evidently, Clayton was telling his Dad how his legs were burning and Sam told him, "whimp, mine aren't" and off they went again.

After the brace was over Clayton and Watson had bested Sam and Cricket but not by much. Then when talking to Sam he mentioned their conversation and said that his legs were burning like mad, but wouldn't let Clayton know it.

New Start To Rewarding Adventures

As I sat in my climbing deer stand deep in the woods, the guilt I had felt earlier that morning returned. I had passed by Lily, my German Shorthaired Pointer, numerous times as I loaded gear into the truck and at last had to tell her, “No. Stay.” closing the door between us. With the wind whispering through the tree limbs, rocking me gently from side to side, I was reminded of the pleading look in her eyes revealing the hope that I’d tell her, “Come on girl, let’s load up!” Surely, you’ve experienced something similar.

She was bred to hunt and I began our training sessions shortly after bringing her home from the breeder. Obedience progressed well and soon we were on to retrieving sessions in the hallway and then pointing pheasant wings in the yard. She was a spring puppy, so that first hunting season I decided to take it slow and only introduced her to the gun without shooting any game over her. But by the next year we had graduated and I can still recall the pride I felt with the first dove she eagerly retrieved to hand. She also got the taste of duck feathers when I took her out to the lake with me a few times and worked on her being steady in the blind. My workload at the office was quite hectic the next season, but as luck would have it, I happened to buy a few raffle tickets and, to my surprise, was rewarded with a preserve pheasant hunt. That hunt gave Lily her first experience of upland hunting. We were both excited and I truly enjoyed sharing time in the field with my bird dog. I became friends with the guide and since then have taken Lily out to run with his dogs during tune-up sessions which provided bird exposure to keep up her desire for field work.

More recently however, another friend introduced me to bow hunting and invited me to join a deer lease with him. Even though she enjoyed the times I would take her out to the lease with me to plant food plots or put up stands and trail cameras, Lily had to stay at home while I ventured into the woods by myself. I began trading more and more time spent hunting with Lily for time in the pursuit of tagging a deer. As I sat there strapped to a tree that day, I chastised myself for having a great bird dog at the house, while I sat alone out in the woods. Right there I made a promise to myself, and to her, to find a way to spend more time working with her and providing opportunities to get in a field with my dog. I began searching the internet and found several different groups that got together with the intent of putting their dogs in the field to do what comes natural – hunt birds.

I found the NSTRA group in my area and learned that they were having a hunt trial within a 90-minute drive of my home town, so I decided to join NSTRA and sign up for the trial with the attitude of jumping right in and figuring things out as we went along. Funny thing – if you Google the term “NSTRA Strategy” you find very little – I wonder why? Well wouldn’t you know it, but Lily’s first brace had her paired up against the area Regional Champion. But the nice thing about it was that the Trial

Chairman (who also happened to be the champion’s Owner/Handler) took the time to drive me around the trial grounds and explain the process and rules, showing me the boundaries and giving me hints and clues on how to work with my dog to be successful and enjoy the whole experience. Everyone I talked to that day was encouraging and certainly made us feel welcome to the group. I was anxious as our turn approached and I just hoped that we’d find at least one bird and not get skunked in the field. As it turned out, Lily found and pointed three birds and was credited with retrieves after safeties were called on all the shots. She ended up with a score of 653, only 18 points less than the champion, and we were hooked from the moment the judge called out “Let ‘em loose!”

Don’t get me wrong, I’ll still occasionally spend time out in the woods in pursuit of deer, but NSTRA has opened up new opportunities for this particular hunter and his dog. The National Shoot to Retrieve Association has taken on a different meaning other than the initials representing the group - for me, it also stands for a New Start to Rewarding Adventures and we’re both looking forward to what lies ahead.

Cary Waterhouse is a new member to the Lone Star region of NSTRA. He lives just northeast of the Dallas/Ft. Worth metroplex and scratches out a living as a technical writer for an aerospace company. He’s been inspired by his experiences with NSTRA and has started the GunDogAdventures.com site to share information with others. He also plans to include a page dedicated to NSTRA Strategy.....maybe. ■

AZ Three Amigos take First, Second & Third NSTRA Trialing in Arizona spans generations. The Razorback Club trials for the fall have been a big success with near full trials and some of the best competition to be found in NSTRA. The club's home base is Monticello Arkansas. Trialers enjoy a club house which is centrally heated and cooled with a kitchen in which wonderful meals are prepared at noon. Most of the field is visible from the porch which makes the trials even more exciting.

Club member Carroll Evans hosted a Razorback trial at his camp in Casscoe, Arkansas in November. The trial was made extra special because of the spacious field with ample cover and because it was the first chukar trial the club had hosted for a number of years.

It was a pleasure to watch new NSTRA member Anna Ramsay run in her first trial Casscoe. Anna and her setter did a fine job for their first time out. Welcome Anna.

The club will end the first half of the year with a double/double January 4 and 5 at the camp in Monticello.

Carroll Evans and Penny Ready to Go

PA Shockley and Sunny. Sunny had the highest retrieve score for the trial, 95, on a water retrieve

Tribute to Gator (Julie's Thunder)

4-14-2002 to 12-16-2013
2x NSTRA champion

Bill Burkhart
MoKan Region

Sadly, I received a call on December 16 in the early morning, from the local Sherriffs department. A nearby farmer had reported two dogs that had broken into his chicken pen. Immediately I looked out to the kennel and noticed the gate had been left open of my dogs Gator (Julie's Thunder) and Ginger. The dogs were not in the pen, and nowhere to be found.

I headed down the street approximately two and a half miles away to find a Sheriff waiting on me at the farmers house. The Sheriff informed me that the farmer was very distraught and shot the "white dog" thinking it was a coyote. To my shock it was Gator. Ginger was spared and safe nearby.

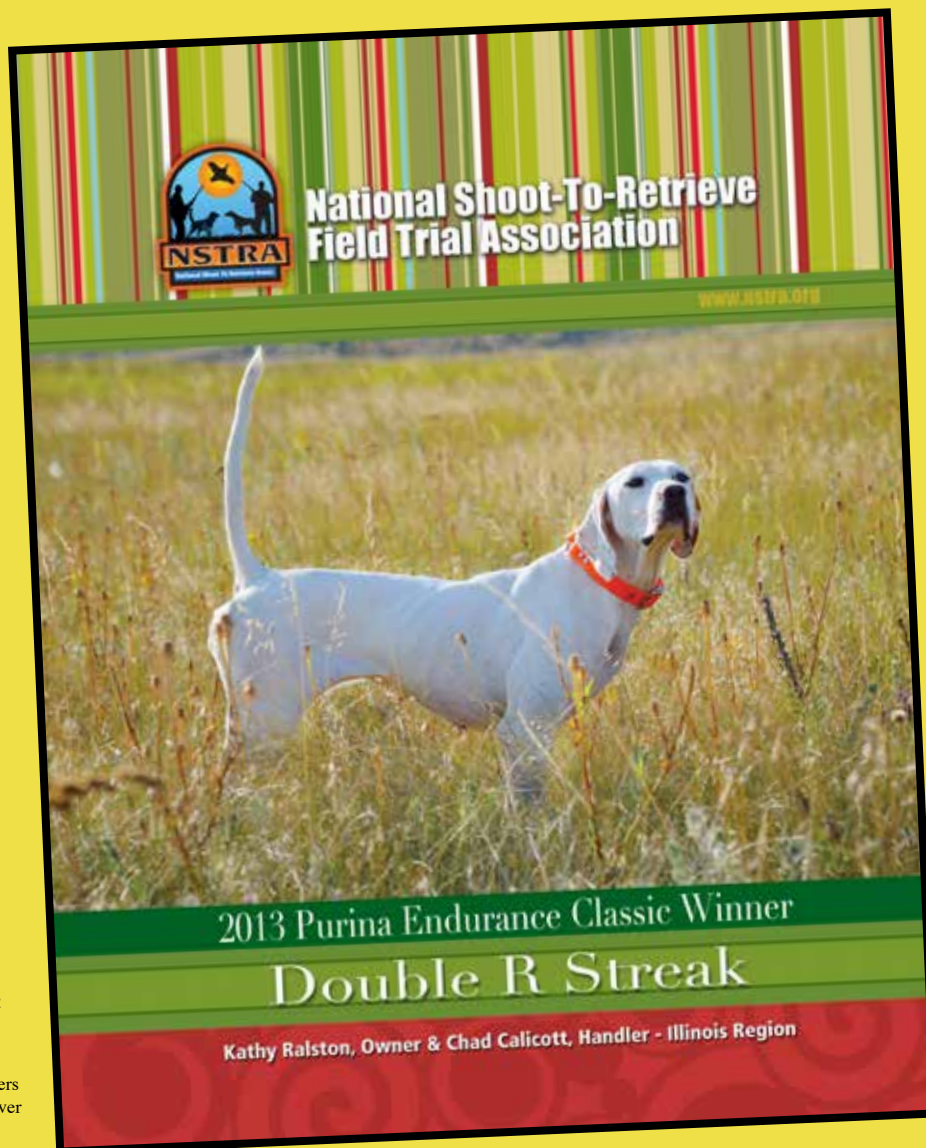

Even though Gator was getting older and slowing down, I truly loved spending time with him. I am still in shock over his death and grateful that I have many fond memories of him. I will miss him.
